3. EXHIBIT F, PRICE PROPOSAL FORM (Attached)
4. Exhibit H, TECHNICAL SPECIFICATIONS, TS 55.5, Driver's Cooling, Separate Dedicated Evaporator, Page 146

Replace: Using a separate, dedicated evaporator, the Climate Control System shall be designed to maintain the driver's compartment temperatures within the range specified for the passenger compartment.

New Language: Using a separate, dedicated evaporator, the Climate Control System shall be designed to maintain the driver's compartment temperatures within the range specified for the passenger compartment. The Respondent may eliminate the dedicated evaporator if the Respondent submits a pull down test, or other documentation, to the Center showing/stating that the driver's compartment temperature maintains the range specified for the passenger compartment without the dedicated evaporator.
